May 2. SEND IN THE BOW.

Charm of Manner.

Once in tramping along a country lane in England I stopped to admire some very wonderful roses that grew in clusters over the door of a little cottage of stone.

As I stood there a woman came out of the cottage, carrying a baby, and there were two others babies tugging at her dress.

And this woman said to me in the sweetest and gentlest manner, "Would you mind if I should give you one of the roses?" And she clipped off one with her scissors and handed it to me.

The action of the woman was so gentle, generous and gracious that I was surprised, and when I tried to express my thanks I only stammered and said it was a fine day and looked like rain.

Then I bethought me that I was in the land of tips, and I felt in my pocket for silver. But the woman stopped me and said, "Oh! I would never take money for a rose—but you are an American and my brother lives in America, and perhaps you will see him and tell him that you saw me and the children."

Then she gave me her name and her brother's name, but he lived in Illinois or Colorado, she could not say which—it was surely one of these.

I promised to hunt up the brother.

Then we shook hands, and I patted her three babies on the head and went away.

I've forgotten the woman's name, and the name of her brother, but the incident of meeting her and the big red rose with the morning dew upon it I will never forget.

Why? Because she had Charm of Manner, and that is the rarest and finest thing in the world.

To have Charm of Manner you do not have to be rich, educated or handsome, for certainly this woman I just mentioned was neither. But she was just honest, gracious and considerate, and so natural in her actions that she was impressive.

Once in a New York department store I wished to buy a cake of soap. The saleswoman showed me a kind at 15 cents a cake, that I rather liked. She told me the price, and then said, "But here is a kind that we can sell two cakes for a quarter—you see, it is a little larger, and, while not certain, I believe you will like it better or just as well—I am sure that you want the best."

"Give me four cakes of the last," I said, and slapped down a half dollar.

I really only wanted one cake of soap, because I had forgotten to put a cake in my valise, and I would be back home in two days, anyway, but that girl's Charm of Manner caught me. She was so gracious, so kindly and so interested in pleasing me and worked in such a delicate little compliment that, in some way, I felt as though she had taken her scissors and snipped off a big red rose, the dew still on it, and handed it to me.

Not all the salespeople have Charm of Manner—this charm that is born of concentration and consideration.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulae. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Ayer's

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

Joe Henry Geyedon has accepted a clerkship in the main store of J. Taylor Day and entered upon the discharge of his duties Monday.

Barnes Elam will probably leave in a few days for Lexington, where he will accept a position with the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Tom Williams and wife, recently returned from Middletown, O., have rented a part of A. F. Johnson's farm, on Lacy creek, and all of his house but one room and a hall.

Erastus Brooks has rented his farm on Red river, 25 or 30 acres, including his bottom land, orchard, etc., to Tom Haddix, and will probably go to his son, Arbury, in Wisconsin.

The town council or trustees will on Monday night next pass an ordinance prohibiting the stock running at large on the streets of Hazel Green, as authorized by act of the last legislature.

The trustees of Hazel Green will condemn the old road leading from Broadway by the old parsonage to State road. Unless this street were worked out it is an eyesore to visitors and others. But it could be worked out.

Henry Murphy and Will Childers, of Maytown, were up here trading yesterday and the former bought a bunch of nine head of yearlings, short and long, of Stevie Rose, of Lacy creek, but we did not learn the price.

Henry Murphy and Andrew Hughes returned from a trip to Owsley, Breathitt and Perry counties, where they bought a mixed drove of about 100 head. They claim cattle is scarce, but our stock sale will prove different.

Lynn Perry, who did some painting for R. J. McLin a few years ago, is here again to do some work for Mr. McLin. Mr. Perry is an artistic painter in sign work as well as in house painting, and a few signs now displayed in our town show his handiwork. He has with him a young man named Hagard, who is assisting him.

Shooting At Landsaw.

It was currently reported here Saturday afternoon that Nathan Combs, deputy sheriff, had shot Jack Wilson, whom he had under arrest and was taking to jail at Campton. At first "Our Man About Town" refused to believe the story, but it was subsequently corroborated so strongly that a doubt could no longer exist. Then the facts were investigated and it was learned that the prisoner and the arresting officer were wrestling, when Combs pulled a pistol and endeavored to shoot Wilson, who caught his pistol handle and turned the weapon away, the bullet entering the ground near the prisoner's feet. Combs then pulled a second pistol and again fired, the second shot entering Wilson's head just about the left temple, glancing up and out a few inches from where it entered. Fortunately for Wilson it was only a flesh wound. Constable Spencer was at once summoned to take Wilson on to jail, but he refused, when Sheriff Sally was sent for and conveyed the prisoner to Campton. Bob Hollon, also a deputy, was present, but from the hearsay evidence it does not appear that he figured in the fight, if fight it can be called. Anyway it may be looked at it is an occurrence to be deplored, for there is no evidence to show that Wilson was trying to get away or was in any way unruly. Combs was not arrested and he may be able to satisfactorily explain the matter.

Later—Since the above was put in type, the new comes to us that Wilson attempted to wrest the pistol from Combs, accidentally discharging it and inflicting a wound upon himself.

Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday school convention for the 13th district, composed of Breathitt, Estill, Lee, Powell and Wolfe counties, was held at Stanton April 15-17. About 30 delegates and speakers were present and the convention was by far the best ever held in this district. State Evangelist R. M. Hopkins and State Secretary H. W. Elliott were present and their talks alone were enough to arouse anyone to see the need of Sunday school work. The people of Stanton opened their homes to visitors and all were received with great kindness. The convention for 1911 will be held at Jackson. Let us all, especially in Wolfe county, get interested enough in Sunday school work to help our individual school to be a Frank Rank school. Perhaps you have some influence over a boy or girl, man or woman, and by your persistent effort can get them into the Sunday school. Try it and they will be thankful to you. The president of this district for the coming year is Rev. W. H. McClendon and the secretary is Rose Coldiron. Begin planning now for your school and for the next convention.

The Woman Preacher.

A lady preacher at the M. E. church, south, at this place, has taken the people by surprise at her wonderful pulpit oratory. She has a trained voice and her delivery is said to be fine. She claims no denomination, but preaches the gospel as she understands it. All who have heard her are wonderfully impressed, and nightly she is greeted with a full house. The writer has not had the pleasure of hearing her because he is suffering with rheumatism and is afraid of night air. She goes from here to Lee City, we understand, where she will be welcomed by the Saints.

Public Speaking at Pearre Hall.

Miss Anna M. Kennedy, as per previous announcement, Saturday night gave a recitation at Pearre Hall that was fairly well attended and appreciated. She was to have appeared Friday, but failed to make connection. Her subject was "54-40 or Fight," and she told the story very completely as viewed by persons who had read the story. Others could not so well appreciate it. But she showed a good memory in reciting the story as she did.

The first team of Campton will play the Hazel Green Academy nine on the grounds of latter, next Saturday, May 7. A large crowd will be present and a good game is anticipated.

I have just received a car load of nice furniture—bed room sets, iron beds, chairs, settees, dressers and any thing in the line. Prices are right. Give me a call.

J. TAYLOR DAY.

Tom Daniel and wife came over Saturday from West Liberty to attend the ball game between Hazel Green and West Liberty, and also to visit Mr. Daniel's parents, Q. C. Daniel and wife. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Don't fail to attend the stock sales here on Wednesday, May 11. A great crowd is anticipated and as there will be stock of every kind on the market it will be a good time for dealers to buy and others to sell. People from Perry and Knott counties will be here with cattle unless plans miscarry.

Hazel Green Academy nine played the Frenchburg team Monday on the latter's grounds and were defeated by the score of 12 to nine. However, that was good playing considering the reputation of the Frenchburg team, and the H. G. A. are proud that they did so well, everything considered.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the old Hazel Green Fair at 2 o'clock on Wednesday, May 11, at the old fairs grounds, with a view to re-organizing the fair. J. T. Day has laid off a half-mile track and is preparing to build an amphitheater. All are invited to take stock that day. Be sure and attend.

Incidentally we learn that some of our correspondents are endeavoring to take revenge upon some people they do not like, through the columns of THE HERALD, and we want them to understand now and for all time that they must fight their own battles without using our paper. We will not tolerate anything of the kind if we knew it.

The ball game here Saturday between the West Liberty team and the Hazel Green Academy nine resulted in a decided victory for the visiting team, the score standing nine to four in their favor. Hazel Green started in fine shape and it looked like our boys would win just too easy. But the West Liberty boys seemed to gain energy after the first one or two innings and then they started in to play the game for all that was in it. May be our boys got a bit rattled when the West Liberty rangers began to guy them, but be that as it may, they lost their nerve. The West Liberty boys played well and fair so far as an onlooker could see, and all were in jolly good humor. Our boys can and will beat them the next time they come together.

Some of the preachers in this section of the country, to increase the number of members on the church roster, are holding forth the idea that when Halley's comet hits the earth on the 18th of this month it will sweep saints and sinners alike from its surface. Our informant says that many people believing his doctrine are seeking divine clemency by uniting with the church. They are simply scared into joining the church, and hope thereby to escape punishment in the world to come. The minister who is responsible for this state of affairs is not at heart a Christian and those who follow him cannot be. Scientists tell us that none need fear the effects of the comet, and their evidence should be taken as paramount to any pulpit orator who seeks to multiply his flock by scaring them.

For the Legislature.

John M. Rose, a merchant of Hazel Green, has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the district composed of Morgan and Wolfe counties.—Winchester Democrat.

Come In and Settle Up.

As Mr. C. F. Kash, of the firm of Kash, Johnson & Kash, will withdraw from the firm at an early date, it is absolutely imperative that all accounts must be settled up at once. This is to notify all who are indebted to said firm to come in and settle by note or account as they must be settled within the next 30 days. Meantime goods will be sold cheaper than ever to let Mr. Kash out and if you want bargains now is your chance. Respectfully,

KASH, JOHNSON & KASH.

Fair Warning.

Several times I have asked subscribers who are in arrears to come in and pay up so that I can pay my just debts. A few have come to my relief, but, alas, the great majority pay no attention to my appeals, and patience has worn out the seat of his pantaloons waiting for them to pay. This is the last time I shall ask them and if they are not squared up by June 1, 1910, they will have to pay a collector. Hoping I may have but few names to turn over to collectors, I am

Your friend and the people's servant,
SPENCER COOPER.

A Bargain.

Desiring to change location two of the firm of Kash, Johnson & Kash are determined to withdraw, even though they sacrifice the stock. It is the opportunity for people who need goods, as everything will be sold at less profit than any merchant in Eastern Kentucky can afford.

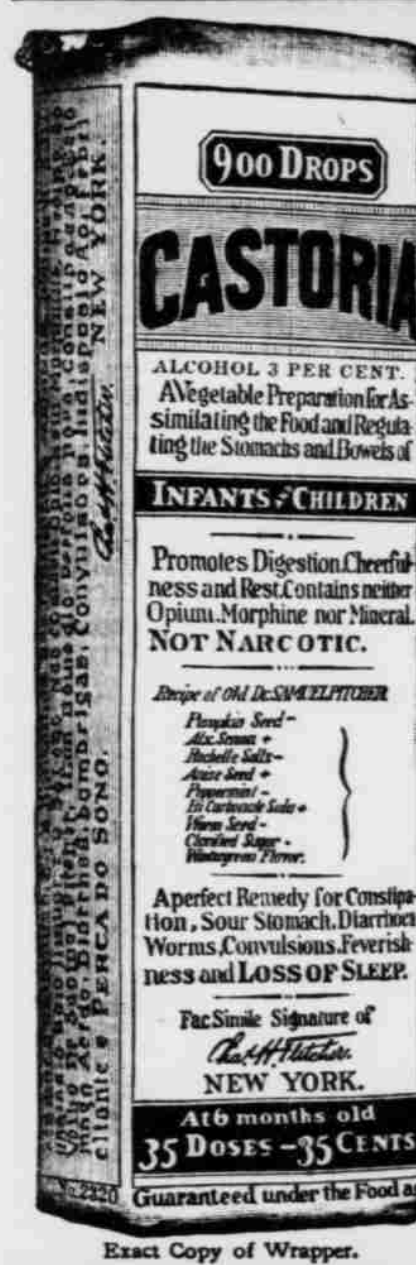

Preferably, however, we will sell the entire stock, invoiced, house and fixtures at a great sacrifice.

This is the opportunity of a life time for anyone who wishes to engage in mercantile trade as our health will not permit us to continue. It is the most desirable stand in Hazel Green, occupying as it does, the ground on which the old Pieratt Hotel stood, the most famous hostelry in Kentucky. We want to sell in bulk and if you will meet us half way, you can buy

KASH, JOHNSON & KASH,
By C. F. Kash.

Pay Your Way.

The base ball team complain to us that many enter the grounds and want to witness the game without paying the admission fee. Now, the parties who do so may be perfectly innocent in their intentions. But they should remember that the team is at big expense, and when all pay they hardly come out even. They have to pay the expenses of all visiting teams, buy bats, balls, uniforms, &c., and unless they get an admission fee they could not continue in business. Their position is just like a farmer selling produce. It costs them money to play and in return they must have a revenue to pay expenses. In brief, a man has no more right to enter on the ball grounds and see a game without paying admission than he has to go into a store and demand a dress pattern for his wife or a suit for himself. We make this statement lest someone insists on seeing the game without pay and thereby get in trouble. Do unto the base ball boys as you would have people do to you, and all will be well. Otherwise someone is liable to get in trouble. First, remember that the grounds where they play is private property. It belongs to the C. W. B. M., and the team is composed of members of the mission school. Pay your way if you want to see a ball game or stay away is our advice.

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.
THE TOLEDO BLADE,
TOLEDO, OHIO.
The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.
CIRCULATION, - - - 200,000
Popular in Every State.

The seventy-fourth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period of its remarkable career. It is now read each week by more than a million people. Its field is not circumscribed by State boundaries, but involves the length and breadth of the United States, giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper in the country.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fireside, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of The Blade are edited with painstaking care. The Household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrapbook of information; the Farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year. Sample copies mailed free. Address,

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collected and Concisely Chronicled.

A new State Guard Company has just been organized and mustered in at Harlan Court House.

Jailer Cyrus Cobb, of Owen county, fell dead on the streets of Owenton last Thursday, occasioned by heart trouble.

Jesse Blythe, who was found on the C. & O. tracks near Maysville Saturday in a mangled condition, died that night at the Maysville hospital.

A new bank was opened at Bethel, Bath county, a few days ago, with a capital stock of $15,000, and soon received an encouraging deposit of $20,000.

Thomas Reeves, the boy who killed his father, Luther Reeves, in Bourbon county, by striking him in the head with a rock, was acquitted on the ground of self-defense.

The running races at the old association grounds at Lexington are now in progress, and race horse people predict that financially it will be the most successful meeting held there in years.

While attending a fraternal celebration at Greensburg, Riley O'Banion, a member of the Monroe, Hart county, Camp of Modern Woodmen, was arrested on a warrant charging him with buying a crop of pooled tobacco.

Saturday morning last an extra freight train, going east, ran over Charles Dobbin, aged 12, a short distance above Gallup, nine miles south of Louisa, producing such injuries that death resulted a few hours later.

The following persons, recently convicted in the Boyd circuit court, were taken to the Frankfort penitentiary last Monday: James McCoy, one year for highway robbery; Charles Buntin, one year for malicious shooting; and Marion Estep, two years for robbery.

Eighteen moonshine cases were called for trial in the Federal Court at Richmond last Thursday, seven pleading guilty and receiving sentences, while 11 pleaded not guilty and gave bond. They were held till next term, as the government had no prosecuting attorney.

M. A. Thatcher, the recently appointed Governor of the Canal Zone, who will be located at Panama, when he leaves for his new home and duties will carry with him the finest silver set that ever went from Kentucky, a gift from the official family at Frankfort, and purchased in that city.

While the pastor was in the midst of a fervent prayer to save the souls of his congregation, someone in the audience of Lewisburg Baptist church, in Mason county, cried "fire!" and in a few minutes the church was in ruins. The congregation was panic-stricken and many were injured trying to escape. No one was killed. Loss $2,000, with no insurance.

In the Letcher circuit court W. R. Holcomb was found guilty of murder and sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary for the killing of Isaac Huff in 1908. Mr. Holcomb is an old pensioner and is in a paralyzed condition, having been carried to the court during his trial. His attorneys will try to have the case appealed.

Ward Headley, of Princeton, one of the leaders in the burley tobacco pool in Kentucky, reports that the pool is gaining strength all over the state. He says the recent cold wave has proved disastrous to the tender young tobacco plants, and gives as a rough estimate that one third of the plants in the state was killed by the frost.

Doe Mounts, a noted character along the Kentucky border, in and around Lindsay, was shot and killed Sunday by Amos Hatfield, known as one of the most dangerous men in the mountains of Kentucky and West Virginia. He was shot twice, one ball entering the heart and killing him instantly. Hatfield was cleared on examining trial, evidence showing self-defense.

David Stanley, murderer of George W. Dotson, at Prestonsburg, in Floyd county, several weeks ago, and for whom a reward of $400 had been offered, was arrested by Deputy Marshal W. B. Anderson just beyond the border line in Wise county, Va. Stanley is said to have made a fierce resistance, but at length gave up. He will be taken to Prestonsburg to stand trial.

James Ison, the 11-year-old son of former Jailer Bony Ison, accidentally shot and killed his playmate, the four-year-old son of Alfred Fields, at Kingdom Come, below Whitesburg, in Letcher county. The Ison boy, who was just inside the house at home, picked up a shotgun and began to carelessly handle it. At length the weapon was discharged, the entire contents taking effect in the Fields boy's face, killing him almost instantly.

A teacher in a New Jersey school received the following note one morning from one of her pupils:

Dear Miss Jones: Please excuse little Tommy for his absence yesterday as he was quite ill, and the doctor told me to keep him in bed. So I let him stay at home.

Your respectfully,
"Misses Jones."

The teacher was a trifle suspicious.

"Tommy," said she sternly, "who wrote that note?"

"My—or—ma did, if you please, Miss."

"Well, I must say that some of that spelling is remarkably like you give me."

The little fellow was equal to the occasion.

"Yes, ma'am," he said cheerfully; "everyone says that as far as spelling is concerned, I'm the dead image of my ma."

Subscribe for the HERALD—$1.

Your attention is called to the advertisements in this paper. The merchants of our town appreciate your trade and take this means of telling you of any bargains they may have to offer, and also to announce the arrival of new goods which are placed at your disposal and inspection. By closely watching the columns of this paper you will learn the names of our business men who invite you to deal with them, and you can rest assured that they will treat you right. A merchant who does not care enough for your trade to ask you to visit his store and who does not inform you of the many bargains he may have to offer is hardly worth your patronage. The progressive merchant will always let his customers know of the arrival of new goods at once, and the way for our merchants to do this is through the columns of THE HERALD, which goes into almost every home in the county.

Lion Fendles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

We heard on the street the other day of a man who claimed he was too poor to take his home paper, but all the same he read a notice in one of our county papers, telling how to prevent a horse from slobbering, and sent $1.50 for receipt. When the $1.50 worth of information came it said: "Teach your horse how to spit."

He was a good little boy and very thoughtful. He had heard about the great scarcity of water throughout the country. He came to his mother and slipped his hands into hers.

"Mamma," he said, "is it true that in some places the little boys and girls have scarcely enough water to drink?"

"That is what the papers say, my dear."

"Mamma," he presently said, "I'd like to give up something for those poor little boys and girls."

His mother gave him a fond look. "Yes, dear. And what would you like to give up?"

"Mamma," he said in his earnest way, "as long as the water is so very, very scarce I think I ought to give up bein' washed."
